Dislocated Worker Program

NEBRASKA
DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

If you have been laid off or have received a layoff notice and are unlikely to return to your previous occupation or industry, you may be eligible for dislocated worker services.

Nebraska's Dislocated Worker program is a partner driven strategy that creates reemployment services and work-based trainings for eligible dislocated workers across Nebraska.

Whether you are looking to get right back to work or are interested in changing career paths, we can help you figure out your next move.

- Personalized services — We provide one-on-one support and coaching to build a plan that fits your unique strengths and needs.
- We can help you get back to work — We connect job seekers to various industries in the public, private, and nonprofit sectors.
- Choose from a wide variety of training programs — Training providers are located across the state.

Eligible dislocated workers may have access to:

- Occupational Skills Training
- On-the-Job Training to obtain skills while getting paid
- Support for Registered Apprenticeship Participation
- Supportive Services

Some of the industries where training services may be available include:

- Advanced Manufacturing
- Construction
- Health Care
- Information Technology
- Transportation, Distribution & Logistics (TDL)
